Do you need more flexible space? This home delivers. Whether you're working remotely, homeschooling, or just craving a quiet retreat, the detached Zoom Room offers a dedicated environment for productivity, workouts, or game day gatherings—separate from the main living area and not included in the home's square footage. Inside, craftsmanship takes center stage. From the tongue-and-groove ceiling to the hardwood floors, thoughtful finishes run throughout this three-bedroom residence, which also includes a study with a closet for added versatility. The kitchen is designed to please, featuring granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, and a downdraft cooktop. The living room is anchored by a stunning rock fireplace and a dramatic wall of windows that fill the space with natural light and showcases a beautiful view of the mountains and the primary suite has an elegant, upscale, renovated bath. Outdoors, you'll find a level front yard, a welcoming rocking chair porch perfect for morning coffee, and double rear decks that offer a pleasant winter view. Need even more room to grow? The expansive unfinished basement provides exceptional storage now, with the option to easily finish later—or simply claim it as the ultimate play space with over 1900 sf.
